FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINISTRY USES WEB TO REACH MILITARY: Former Marine Available to Discuss the Need to Reach Soldiers with Armor of Christ

WHAT: As we approach the Fourth of July holiday and celebrate our nation's independence, online ministry Global Media Outreach (GMO) seeks to bring the freeing power of faith to members of the military through its Web sites www.FlagsAndFaith.com and www.GodLovesSoldiers.com.

GMO intends for these sites to bring peace, comfort and courage – even in the midst of combat – to those serving in the military through the hope found in a relationship with Jesus Christ.

WHO: Walt Wilson, founder and chair of GMO, a Silicon Valley-based ministry that uses emerging technologies to spread Christianity throughout the world. Prior to his 50-year business career in technology, Wilson served active duty in the United States Marine Corps.

WHEN: By appointment

WHERE: Via phone

DETAILS: GMO is bringing evangelism into the 21st century. Since its inception in 2004, GMO has seen the number of people making commitments to Christ grow from 21,066 people annually to more than 3 million people in 2008.

In addition to the sites listed above, GMO sponsors a total of over 90 Web sites to reach people around the globe for Christ and help them mature in their faith. Several sites present the Gospel in over 100 languages, while numerous others provide resource materials such as articles, online Bible studies, videos and worship music.

To arrange an interview with Wilson, please contact Julie Shultz at 972.267.1111 or via e-mail at julie@alarryross.com.
