

“I was born in a Hindu family, yet as a child there was never peace in my mind through reading and going to temple. In 2003 I learned about Jesus, but not clearly. I wanted to know Him deeply. When I saw the GMO Web site, I felt happy. I want some information about the Bible. I have firmly made a decision for Jesus.”

“I would like to witness how Jesus has changed my life. I fear nothing as I used to be if confronted with problems. Joy and peace of mind fill my heart. I am deeply in touch with Jesus through constant prayers. I feel strength to face world challenges and I am at peace. I would also like to thank GMO for the spiritual lessons that have enriched me in my spiritual thirst. May the Good Lord bless GMO for the wonderful work it does to help others get to know God.”

“I have had a difficult life growing up. I would go day by day thinking there should be more to life. I felt alone, drifting away from God, but I still had that hunger for him. That’s when I came onto the GMO site. I wrote GMO and I got a reply and that has made such a huge difference. Now I know I’m not alone, my new friend (online missionary) is helping me to stay strong. I know now with everything that has gone wrong in my life there was a reason for it. I want to thank GMO for helping me find Jesus. I was lost but now I’m found.”

“I have recently made the decision to follow Jesus Christ. I don’t remember in all my life a time when I’ve felt this good. It’s a bit difficult, especially with the life I used to lead, but I read new scriptures everyday to help me grow in faith. I think I came very close to self destructing, but I’m happy that God has shown me the way in time, and saved me from myself. I’m so hungry for the Word, and all I want is to get closer to God and obey him and speak, walk and live by faith. I’m grateful for this Web site because it just shows how many people out there serve this living God. It feels amazing to be a part of this righteous family.”

“Eleven days have passed since I received inspirational messages from GMO via e-mail and my faith in God is growing strong. I know the solutions to my problems have started to unfold recently because I could feel the sense of presence of the Lord Jesus Christ in my whole being. I can feel now that He will not leave me during a moment when I need Him most. Thanks to GMO again and also great thanks to God!”

“Your simple message that I found by Googling ‘Jesus,’ and pressing ‘feeling lucky,’ led me to your site. It answered some basic questions for me. Have I come to the right place? Did I get lucky? Thanks for anything you can do for me. I have avoided ‘Jesus freaks,’ and slick pastors my whole life. Why is Jesus calling to me now? I have heard his voice, and received an invitation that I did not ask for. I must now turn to those living for more answers, so that I might find what I have always sought. I just prayed to receive Christ as my Savior for the first time.”
